Celebrate the New Year with PRAM!
JANUARY 10, 2011 MS Beach Chapter
Monthly Meeting

Join us for a refreshing NEW look at writing, photography and publishing with this month's speaker Tim Isbell. Isbell has more than 25 years of experience as a photojournalist, has also worked as a writer, designer and photo editor and has won over 100 local, state and national journalism awards. He has spent most of his career at The Sun Herald. Isbell has also combined his love of history with his journalism training to produce three books, Gettysburg: Sentinels of Stone, Vicksburg: Sentinels of Stone, and Shiloh & Corinth: Sentinels of Stone. The lunch meeting starts at noon in the Sunset Room at the Great Southern Club, One Hancock Plaza, Gulfport. See you there!

PRism Awards Submission Deadline Fast Approaching

It's that time again to show off your PR smarts, styles and skills! Click here for the TOP 10 TIPS from the Judges!
What are the PRism Awards?

The PRism awards began in 2003 as a way to honor and recognize outstanding work in the field of public relations by professionals within the state of Mississippi. The awards are judged by professionals outside the geographical boundaries of the Southern Public Relations Federation -- Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, and Louisiana. The highest award honor goes to the PRism winners, followed by Awards of Excellence and Certificates of Achievement.

Overall, the judges will honor one "Best of Show" and two entries for the "Judge's Choice" Awards. Deadline to enter: Thursday, January 21st, 2011, 5:00 p.m.

To enter, visit www.pramprisms.org and follow the seven easy steps in the online entry system. Entries should be submitted via the PRism online system, which allows you to enter your programs and projects, manage your entries, pay for your submissions, and pay for your duplicate awards after the ceremony. Once you complete your online award submission, this only puts you into our database. You must still mail your official award submission to the address provided on the Web site.
